Falling Apart

Trust Company

I slipped away further from you
Tryin' to find what is real
You're somebody else that I never knew
And someone that I can't feelI shut it away, I keep it in me
Is this what it takes to keep me alive?
So you take me and you break me
And you see I'm fallin' apartComplicate me and forsake me
You push me out so far
(So, so far)
There's no more feelin'I slipped away closer to me
Only thing that is real
I'm fallin' behind and now I can see
Your absence helps me healI shoved you away, I keep you for me
Is this what it takes to keep me alive?
So you take me and you break me
And you see I'm fallin' apartComplicate me and forsake me
You push me out so far
(So, so far)
There's no more feelin'
(There's no more feelin')Spread, spread out
(Spread out)
Spread, spread out
(Spread out)So you take me and you break me
And you see I'm fallin' apart
Complicate me and forsake me
You push me out so farAnd you take me and you break me
And you see I'm fallin' apart
There's no more feelin'
There's no more feelin'
There's no more feelin'
