

Pages (Acoustic)

There for Tomorrow

The turns you had to take still keep you awake
Down come the walls where you once stood
From constant changes you have made
You'll keep inside til you have a say We change as we get older
Were not to stay
The days we walked are over Now we just drive away
From everything I know
You're counting days on the back of your hands
You turn the pages til you have no more plans The only time you had to think of all the things involved
Came when you were least expecting
And now its up to us to replace it
To tell us when ages have made a difference
Cause changes tell just who we are We change as we get older
Were not to stay
The days we walked are over Now we just drive away
From everything I know
You're counting days on the back of your hands
You turn the pages til you have no more plans Now were just miles away
From all that we could be
You're counting days on the back of your hands
We turn the pages Remember the days you've counted won't be forgotten
I hope you won't leave yourself out
When we turn the pages
