Ever Be

January Gray

You're the infection, my friend
Disgusting right to the end
Didn't I know it then? I knew it, I knew itYou're basic but hard to define
Simple, yet somehow sublime
Knew you will strike again, I knew it, I knew itYou're all that's wrong with your dumbass psalm
Yeah, that's all that you will ever be
Nothing you can do 'cause that's all that you will ever bePolished you shimmer when shined
But rotten and seething inside
Everyone falls for this, I knew it, I knew itYou're all that's wrong with your dumbass psalm
Yeah, that's all that you will ever be
Nothing you can do 'cause that's all that you will
That's all that you will, that's all that you will ever beEver be, never be, want to be mine
All to be, made to be, holding your side
Throwing it, breaking it, all by your fame
Sending you back to the place you once cameLeaving behind you
No one around youYou're all that's wrong with your dumbass psalms
Yeah, that's all that you will ever be
Nothing you can do 'cause that's all that you will ever beYou will never be
You will never be
You will never beYou don't wanna be God
You don't wanna be God
You don't wanna be GodIt's all gone, it's all gone
It's all gone, it's all gone
It's all gone
