Fallen Angel

Dropline

Beautiful curls in a coma
Lives upon seasonal painTell me everything you know I've said
It's a lie I can't control
I can't go on
I can't because I
Miss you, fallen angel
I miss you and the fascination
Oh, know when I'm wrongWell I think the world got your message
It's clear as the look crossed your face
Is that your star out on the pavement
You're lost; even stars they have to fadeTell me everything you know I've said
It's a lie I can't control
I can't go on
I can't because I
Miss you, fallen angel
I miss you and the fascination
Oh, know when I'm wrong
Know when I'm wrongSee it on the shelf
Sure could be confusion
Actin' like a winner
Always a delusion
Patience in yourself
Patience in the afternoon
Uh, uh, uh, uh
Uh, ma, ma, ma, ma, ma, ma, yeahWell tell me everything you know
Tell me everything you know
Tell me everything
Tell me everything
Tell me everythingBecause I
Miss you, fallen angel
I miss you and the fascination
Oh, know when I'm wrongKnow when I'm wrong (2x)Know when I'm...
And I'm...I...I...I...I...
