

Woman In Red

San Fermin

In a minute, in a drink or two, oh my darling
Don't forget it's a good time, it's a party
Tell me all the things you oughta do
The things you want are lying just beneath
I can show you a good time if you let me
Hold still now while I cherish the ground
That lies between us, overreaching
And I think I'm in love with the distance
When you go to sleep, don't close your eyes
When you go to sleep, don't close your eyes
All the colors going black and green
In the hallway I can hear you scream
Only wanted to hold you in the morning
I bow before your love
I bow before your love
I don't ever wanna hold you down, oh come my darling
Don't forget it's a good time, it's a party
Tip toe now it's a merry-go-round
Of muffled sounds, don't be rough with me
Let's wake up with each other in the morning
But the woman in red and her little eyes
You can't expect a man not to fantasize
When you go to sleep don't close your eyes
When you go to sleep don't close your eyes
Oh
But the woman in red and her little eyes
Oh you can't expect a man not to fantasize
Oh the woman in red and her little mouth
You can't expect a man not to do without
Oh the woman in red
(Think you better run away)
