

Worthless Heart

Andrew Horn

wake me up when i'm older it seems tomorrows always better we move our lives into the future to make sense of our ever present failureswell she's in love with a ghost with a picture on the wall and a CD in her carwell i'm ashamed that giving up was always in my plan to live a dying manwelllll.....I dont know why she wants to be apart of something so brokenI guess we'll see lord if she can find the man shes hoping I amshe wants to wake me uh-up I'm falling
I'm too scared not to run
I wonder what I've done
It's too late cus shes made me the one...(and i wonder) WHY she wants to be with me sleep with me at my side and I wonder about her eyes what does she see in me why she hasnt said goodbyeshe believes there's gold under my calloused coat of angry
I guess we'll see, lord, if she can find the man shes aftershe wants to wake me up
I'm falling
I'm too scared not to run
I wonder what I've done
It's too late
cus shes made me the one...She wants my worthless heart I dont know know what I should do She wants my worthless heart I guess I'll give it all to youu-uuuuubut I don't know where the pieces fell from the last girl that swore she meant me well But I'm doin fine and I'll be okay It just takes some time for all this painnnnnnn.
