

Eleonore

The Bony King of Nowhere

Oh Eleonore
You came the long way home
Coming with a dream
And going back alone Oh Eleonore
You have left this place
So there's no warm embrace
Just a short hello Then turn around and go
Oh Eleonore Oh Eleonore
Friends are hard to find
And you've left yours behind
You don't know where to stay
But that's the price you pay Oh Eleonore
It shouldn't bother me
You wanted to be free
I've known it before
Since you've closed the door
Oh Eleonore And if you turn around you see
That there is no one else but me
I guess we both know what's best
So forget about the rest Oh Eleonore
You came the long way home
Coming with a dream
And going back alone
