Cradled In Your Love

Joan Armatrading

What was so special, we were exact
So much together, we were like that
You'd send chills down my spine
Or burn me up with your desireWhat happened to you and me
And the love that we once knew
I read the letters, I found the cards
Not hidden wellI thought love transcended lust
I guess my heart was wishingWhat happened to you and me
And the love that we once knew
You never said, it would end
And I thought we were uniqueSafe and sound
Cradled in your loveWhat happened to you and me
And the love that we once knew
You never said, it would end
And I thought we were uniqueYou never said, it would end
And I thought I could depend
On a life time spent with you
