

Wolf (North)

Stephen Kellogg

The wolf by the ears

The tiger by the tail

The sinking realization that this time you're gonna failure is a friend

Who talks behind your back

Putts the bit between your teeth

Let's the cat out of the bag

And these things may mean more

To me than to you

Just because you don't believe it

Doesn't mean it isn't true

TrueRoll with the punches

Smell the roses

Roll with the punches

Smell the roses

Roll with the punches

Smell the rosesComparisons a thief

a despot and a liar

It will take away your joy in the happiest of

Time will never tell

Space is gonna win

The prayer is to the saint what the bed is to the sinAnd these things may mean more

To me than to you

Just because you don't believe it

True
