Silenced

Antillas

I know your heart is calling for me,
but I drown you out.
My fear to fall is so deafening,
I can't hear you now.Safe. I'm a fool.
Alone. Afraid.
Hold me in your arms till the noise just fades away.Then you take me up, and you give me wings,
a symphony begins.
I'm silenced.
Then you give me love, now I can breathe,
I'm ready to let you in.
I'm silenced.
I'm silenced.
I'm silenced.I used to crave the sweet distractions,
that came with all the lies.
In this empty space between us,
you opened my eyes.Safe. I'm a fool.
Alone. Afraid.
Hold me in your arms till the noise just fades away.Then you take me up, and you give me wings,
a symphony begins.
I'm silenced.
Then you give me love, now I can breathe,
I'm ready to let you in.
