

Honest

Joseph

I can't say a true thing
It's hard to be that honest
I know you're not asking
But I told you that I'd promise. There're always two thoughts
One after the other:
I'm alone.
No, you're not - I'm alone - No, you're not. I know I'm pretending
When I try to have an answer
So hard I've intended
But I don't know what comes after There's still these two thoughts
One after the other:
I'm alone.
No, you're not - I'm alone - No, you're not.
I'm alone. No, you're not
