One in a Million Girl

Kendra Royal

When I was younger I grew up really fast.
Tried to hold on tight but my childhood didnâ€™t last.
When I didnâ€™t fit in I was fighting through it all.
Caught in the middle yea this girl had to stand up tall.
Donâ€™t you run away, hide your face, you can make it on your own.
Just step up girl you can change this world.
Yesterday has come and gone.
And girl, donâ€™t let them hold you back.
Your so much more than that.
Keep on pushing through, this is the very best of you.
Whoa, whoa
It can feel like your never gonna win.
If you think you canâ€™t than you better think again.
Nothing is impossible just give it another shot.
Youâ€™ve got what it takes but it will take everything youâ€™ve got.
Donâ€™t you run away, hide your face.
You can make it on your own.
Just step up girl you can change this world.
Yesterday has come and gone.
And girl, donâ€™t let them hold you back.
Your so much more than that.
Keep on pushing through this is the very best of you.
Whoa, Whoa
This is the very best of you.
Whoa, Whoa
No matter what, itâ€™s all or nothing youâ€™ve only got one shot.
This is your life.
Itâ€™s now or never.
Your one in a million.
One in a million girl.
Donâ€™t let them hold you back,
your so much more than that.
Keep on pushing through.
This is the very best of you.
Donâ€™t let them hold you back,
your so much more than that.
Keep on pushing through.
This is the very best of you.
Whoa, Whoa

Your one in a million girl.
Whoa, Whoa
Your one in a million girl.
