

California Sunshine Girl

Roy Orbison

California woman
Hanging heavy on my mind
Never found another like her

Guess she was just one of a kind
She never wrapped no strings around me
She could treat a man so fine

I still see her golden hair
And the California sunshine
Mississippi rain falling on my head

No California woman sleeping in my bed
Makes me wanna move on, leave all this behind
I need my California woman and the California sunshine

Golden California beaches
Knocking on a beach house door
They say that California woman
She don't live here anymore
They say she left with a stranger

Leaving nothing left behind
She buried all my dreams here

In the California sunshine
Mississippi rain falling on my head
No California woman sleeping in my bed

Makes me wanna move on, leave all this behind
I need my California woman and the California sunshine
I need my California woman and the California sunshine
