California Smoke

Burn Atlas

well tonight the fires of truth will all be burning high like gunsmoke angels flaming out across the sky so let's grab our torches,revolution battlecry yeah me march as one 'cause you know we're not afraid to die whoa

'cause I don't want or have any greed for anything but capital greed my eyes turn red and I start to choke on the California Smoke hoaah well the mountainside is shining in the afterglow there's a secret there,a devil that you ought to know he said your future's dark and soon you'll mourn the light of day so I shook my his hand and shot him dead and walked away,woah

(solo)

yeah well I don't want or have any greed for anything but capital greed my eyes turn red and I start to choke on the California Smoke hoaah (x2)
