Phish

danger i've been told to expect it i begin my descent down the cold granite steps and who could have turned among those i confide in i think that i know what i haven't known yet
'cause a week is a month and an hour a day when your reaching just pushes it further away now with your past and your past and your future precisely divided am i at that moment
i haven't decided
i haven't decided

and stretching out into the sea aquitana is that what the prophet had told me he saw he gave it to me but i really don't want it i came out on top by the luck of the draw
'cause a week is a month and an hour a day when your reaching just pushes it further away and what's the return on the faith i provided i think that i know now but haven't decided don't take another step

i haven't decided
don't blame it on yourself oh i haven't
'cause you can lay it on your brother when he's sleeping wake up in the morning you'll be gone
