Heart Attack (Julian Hamilton Rework)

Flight Facilities

How far out have I got to move?
Oh I've got to get next to you
But you're so far away
Searching for a heart another world awayYou're all I need and now if you knew
I can't operate without you
No I can't never live another day
Fall into the floor
You're my heart attackHeart attack, heart attack, heart attack
Baby, you're my heart attack
Heart attack, heart attack
BabyLines on your face
Tell the stories of the burdens you bare
Could you go there again?
And although I'm longing for your embrace
It's still a feeling that I wish I could end
Now I feel like I'm crazyHow far out have I got to move?
Oh I've got to get next to you
But you're so far away
Searching for a heart another world awayYou're all I need and now if you knew
I can't operate without you
No I can't never live another day
Fall into the floor
You're my heart attackHeart attack, heart attack, heart attack
Baby, you're my heart attack
Heart attack, heart attack
Baby, you're my heart attack(repeat)
