

Front Door

Eleni Mandell

Down at the bottom of a well
I saw a flash
I never knew what it was
Now I knowThe sun, the stars, the moon
And the way that you smile
When I open my front doorAll along the road I look for a sign
To tell me if I'm going the right way
All along the road I look for a sign
To tell me if I'm going the right wayNow I know, the rain all night
Leads to a clear blue sky
And the way that you smile
When I open my front doorDown at the bottom of a well
I saw a light
I never knew what it was
Now I knowThe golden glow, distant city arrives
And the way that you smile
When I open my front doorAll along the road I look for a sign
To tell me if I'm going the right way
All along the road I look for a sign
To tell me if I'm going the right way
Now I knowOne kind word
And the way that you smile
When I open my front doorOne kind word
And the way that you smile
When I open my front door
