

How The Gods Kill (Live On The Black Hand Side)

Danzig

if you feel alive
in a darkened room
do you know the name
of your solitude
if you ain't got the answer if you don't know the truth if you want the power
then let it flow through would you let it go would let it go
they cannot end this morning
of my lifeshow me
how the gods kill if you feel alive
if you got no fear
do you know the name
of the one you seek
if you want the answer
if you want the truth
look inside your empty soul
there
you'll find the noose would you let it go would you let it go
they cannot end this morning
of my lifeshow me
how the gods kill
