Ane Brun

I see doors in every direction
I see them all wide open
As I go near they won't close on me
Won't close on me
They won't close on meI look in every direction
Finding my own way out
As I go near they won't close on me
They won't close on me
They won't close on meEverything is possible
Even when the sun don't shine
'Cause I know how to walk right through
How to walk right through
How to walk right through
I walk in the rain
My shoes fill up with water
With every step I get more wet
I get more wet
I get more wetStep one, step
Step two, step
Step three, step
Step four, step!I can howl down a marching band
My voice flies above the sound
Flying over the beat of the drums
The beat of the drums
The beat of the drums
I see doors in every direction
I see them all wide open
As I go near I just walk right through
I just walk right through
Just walk right throughStep one, step
Steo two, step
Step three, step
Step four, step!Step one, step
Steo two, step
Step three, step
Step four, step!
