

Long Road to Nowhere

BM Linx

Steal away the sun
steal away the sun for me
and I'm wrong.
Even I can be wrong
and I'm sorry to tell you that I wont be there and I'll never be there
so never count on me to care.

It's a long
It's a long, long road to nowhere
and I've been there.

It's a long
It's a long, long road to nowhere
and I've been there

Be that light again.
Be that light that shines again for people
who cant see anymore.
And I cant believe you
when you say you're free.
You always say you're free...
you don't know what that means.

It's a long
It's a long, long road to nowhere
and I've been there.
(Repeat)

Its all right if you wanna stay home tonight,
spend some time to recover from your big fight.
Just remember that the world is a big place
for anyone but you, it would be all right.
Get yourself in the middle of nowhere,
take the fire and get rid of it somewhere,
take a look at what you are now:
anyone but you.

It's a long

It's a long, long road to nowhere
and I've been there.

(Repeat)
