

The Good Life

Anouk

Time's ticking and it's crawling forward
Turns boys into men, it's awkwardTime to live and a time to die
A time to fall and a time to fightEvery word is just another lie
I wonder why I do even try
I'm wishing that someone was with me now
Letting me know I'm okay, that I'll surviveTake me two years ago when I thought
I lived the dream my heart had been longing for Tick tock, so many changes
Going through all the stagesA time to hate and a time to love
Time makes me wait for GodUnknown future, it's scaring me
For now this is all that I can beInstead of making a fast draw
Try to make this heart come undoneTake me two years ago when I thought
I lived the dream my heart had been longing for
'Cause time does not forget what I was made for
So I follow the stars without too many regretsTime's ticking and it's crawling forwardIt's the good life
