William Shakespeare Invented Loneliness

InMemory

Infatuated with your fashion it's my daily routine
To be outside of your glass display
My love you're made for me
I swear you said
I'm running with scissors, in hope that I fall down
Well here I am, here I amYou can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
You can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safeI heard the sirens as the glass broke now I'm fleeing the scene
Running with this medic hand
My love you're made for me
I swear, she said
These fellas are plastic, you're not what I imagined
Here I am, here I amYou can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
You can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safeAnd they break the front door down
They find me in tears
You hide behind me
Put me in my new white coat
Arms crossed my chest
To restrain my desperate heart from screaming your name
And they roll me away
Which room soft to the touch
Like your plastic flesh(Oooh I like that)You can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
You can't leave, I cannot stay
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
It's not safe, baby, it's not safe
