Please Come In

Black Stone Cherry

I have looked out my window
And you know she's no longer there
There's an angel standing in her place, well she won't care
Couldn't be that easy for her to say goodbyePlease come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymoreIt must be the time for me to leave it behind
'Cause there's a new day out there
Where the sun will always shinePlease come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymoreIf you look out your window
And there's an angel there
I hope she plays a guitar
With flowers, flowers in her hairPlease come in but don't pretend
Won't you please come in?
Listen babyPlease come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymorePlease come in, don't you pretend
