In Your Room

Toni Pearen

I wanna walk into your room and try on all your clothes
I wanna know your secrets that nobody knows
I wanna give you comfort, be your bandage when you bleed
I wanna be the answer to everything you need
I wanna be your oxygen, you breathe me out and you breathe me in
I never dreamed before
I'd be knocking on heaven's door

[CHORUS]
What about that world
Lying in your room?
Oh baby, when I'm all over you
You can wear my love
You can slip into my kisses
When I'm all over you

I wanna hold you close and take you for a walk
I wanna get to know you, we don't have to talk
I wanna listen to your records and slow dance forever
Or we could just do nothing and be here together
I wanna be your confidant
That's all I need and that's all I want
I wanna show such tenderness
Can't you see that weekend bliss?

[CHORUS x2]
What about that world
Lying in your room?
Oh baby, when I'm all over you
You can wear my love
You can slip into my kisses
When I'm all over you

We'll do the things you've only things you've ever dreamed
We'll get so close and it would seem as if
The world exists inside our kisses

I wanna be your oxygen, you breathe me out and you breathe me in
I never dreamed before

I'd be knocking on heaven's door

[CHORUS x2]
What about that world
Lying in your room?
Oh baby, when I'm all over you
You can wear my love
You can slip into my kisses
When I'm all over you
