Beautiful Girls (Acoustic Version)

Five Times August

Well Ive seen beautiful girls
Theyre always going to be around
And Ive seen beautiful girls
Theyre always going to turn me downSo where did this come from?
Did I find a new home?
Did I finally see what I was waiting for?
And where did my heart go
When I wrote the song slow?
Did I finally see what I was waiting for?Eyesite set on the world
And no ones going to slow me down
With no mind set on the girl
No ones going to let me drownSo why do I care now?
Did I find a new town?
Did I finally see what I was waiting for?
And why do I say things
That I dont mean lately?
Did I finally see what I was waiting for?Cause they know about me
Well Im the nice guy coming in last
And they think Im only
The shy guy without any class
And they think Im alone
But theyll never know
Those beautiful girlsSo lipstick, how to kiss,
Fashion tips that wrap around your hips
Baby Im not into it,
The magazines and fashion trends you hold on toAnd maybe thats un-cool
But Ill set a new rule
To judge on the heart,
Dont you judge in the mirror
We may be a long way
But thats all that I can say
Youve gotta get a little closer
Get a little closerCause they know about me
Well Im the nice guy coming in last
And they think Im only
The shy guy without any class
And they think Im alone
But theyll never know

Those beautiful girlsCause they know about me
Well Im the nice guy coming in last
And they think Im only
The shy guy without any class
And they think Im alone
But theyll never know
No theyll never know
Those beautiful girls
