

Unbroken

ZOEgirl

1 2 3
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
Fallen to pieces
(I am undone)
The things you said
(Manipulation)
I trusted you like a fool
While you made all the rules
So you searched me out
And you took me down
To be unbroken, what would that be?
If words that were spoken, had not shattered me
If I was unbroken, I'd never know
The beauty of hope, and how far grace will go
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
The things you found
(To use against me)
Have lost their sound
(When mercy and truth meet)
I fell to the Father's feet
His words washed all over me
And all the scars you made
Watch them fade away
To be unbroken, what would that be?
If words that were spoken, had not shattered me
If I was unbroken, I'd never know
The beauty of hope, and how far grace will go
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
I've tasted bitter, tasted sweet
Embraced the victory, and some defeat
I've tasted bitter, tasted sweet
I found the beauty in the place they meet
To be unbroken, what would that be?
If words that were spoken, had not shattered me
If I was unbroken, I'd never know
The beauty of hope, and how far grace will go
To be unbroken, what would that be?
If words that were spoken, had not shattered me
If I was unbroken, I'd never know
The beauty of hope, and how far grace will go
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
To be unbroken, to be unbroken
To be unbroken, to be unbroken

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>