Broken Frames

Ariose

(screamo) When all is said and done
Where will you be
You'll be staring right back
Right back at me
Never, never talk back to me
Quiver at the sound
That we scream.
(singing) Never been a fan of goodbyes
You know that
I'd rather leave you here to die
You know that.
And when you say my name
You get the best of me
I feel, I can feel.
(screamo) You're bitter
You can't get over me
Deliver
Her body back to sea.
(singing) Won't let you be the death of me
You know that before it's over you will see
The waves crash.
And when you say my name
You get the best of me
I feel, I can feel

You won't be leaving anytime soon
You're sewn into my veins
I'm left with all the memories
Behind the broken frames.
(screamo) Far away, far away
I can see your face
Out of flames you fly
Out of broken frames
Silence words you cry
Left to wonder why I'm waiting.
(singing) And when you say my name
You get the best of me
I feel, I can feel
You won't be leaving anytime soon

You're sewn into my veins
I'm left with all the memories
Behind the broken frames.
And when you say my name
You get the best of me
I feel, I can feel
You won't be leaving anytime soon
You're sewn into my veins
I'm left with all the memories
Behind the broken frames.
(screamo) Behind the broken frames
You're sew into my veins.
