

Everybody Knows That You Are Insane

Queens of the Stone Age

You want to know why you feel so hollow?

Because you are.

You're missing out? Well if you say so

Then you're missing outEverybody knows that you are insane

You want to know just how long you can hide from what you are?

Not very long

I have been lost. Down every road I follow out in the dark

On my way homeBut I feel nothing. Am I better yet?Everybody knows that you are insane
