Loops

Doldrums

In circles again, we've been right where we began, the loops are ever and... what's been said, the second conversation, that don't mean a thing.
Well I've been hurt, so I won't feel it, it'd be just like we're going in loops again, later on take back all things we've said, we're going in loops again.
I've been hurt, and we've been here, it feels just like we're going in loops again.
Say that it's not anything, I've had enough, the loops are killing us.
In brightness, we knew we'll hide from the start, I know this had to fall off.
Well I've been hurt, so I won't feel it, it'd be just like we're going in loops again.
Later on, some or all things we said, we're going in loops again.
I've been hurt and we've been here, it feels just like we're going in loops again.
Get too close push away, it feels just like we're going in loops again.
I get hurt so I won't feel it, it'd be just like we're going in loops again.
