Change the Tide

Rita Pam

Hereâ€™s a thought
Just keep moving
A thought to myself
Tribulations, trials that set me free
Pure freedom, in knowing that joy comes after pain

And I cannot change the tide
I can only learn to swim
Iâ€™m changing direction tonight
Iâ€™m letting it all go tonight
You just gotta listen

This heart that was once bleeding
A cruce salus
Cup in hand, watching the world go by
The essence of grief running down twin springs of sorrow

And I cannot change the tide
Aequam memento rebus in arduis servare mentem
I can only learn to swim
Accipere quam facere praestat injuriam
Iâ€™m changing direction tonight
Aequam memento rebus in arduis servare mentem
Iâ€™m letting it all go tonight
