Open Your Eyes

DJ Encore

You can't keep me holding on
I've given you some time
I can't make you come along
If you don't share your mindEvery time you close your eyes
I know you feel the same
Everything you try to fight
Is drowning in the rainWhat does it take to open your eyes?
Don't let it fade
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rainOpen your eyes
Don't let me wait
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rainTell me why you turn away
Whenever I believe
Finally you've come to say
I'm everything you needEvery time you close your eyes
I know you feel the same
Everything you try to fight
Is drowning in the rainWhat does it take to open your eyes?
Don't let it fade
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rainOpen your eyes
Don't let me wait
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rainI'm not asking of you
To give yourself away
I just want you to
Hear the words I sayIt's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of timeWhat does it take to open your eyes?
Don't let it fade
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rainOpen your eyes
Don't let me wait
You've got to let the sun shine
Through the rain
