Theories from Another World

Paradise Lost

Erased by the words, consuming desolate
In death in remorse, in this we celebrateTheories from another world, from another failure
We don't adhere to fascination
Weary, fall on mother earth, call your other saviour
We won't adhere to fascinationDrained by the voice in which we tolerate
Rejection restores resistance provocatesTheories from another world, from another failure
We don't adhere to fascination
Weary, fall on mother earth, call your other saviour
We won't adhere to fascination
