

Nothin' Good About Goodbye

Hinder

Rolled up my sleeves today
'Cause I thought that this was over
But then you called to say
You forgot that broach of your mother's And everytime I try to cut the cord
You come crawling back with some excuse
You forgot something There's nothin' good about goodbye
I could swear I saw you cry
Always knew you'd wind up fa-falling, fa-falling harder
Nothin' good about goodbye, don't just say goodbye Rolled up my sleeves today
'Cause I thought that this had ended
But then you called again
To tell me how you're gonna blow my best friend And every time I try to cut the cord
You come crawling back with some excuse
You forgot something There's nothin' good about goodbye
I could swear I saw you cry
Always knew you'd wind up fa-falling, fa-falling harder Every story has two sides
In the he-said, she-said fight
But you'll always wind up fa-falling, fa-falling harder
Nothin' good about goodbye, don't just say goodbye Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart There's nothin' good about goodbye
I could swear I saw you cry
Always knew you'd wind up fa-falling, fa-falling harder Every story has two sides
In the he-said, she-said fight
But you'll always wind up fa-falling, fa-falling harder
Nothin' good about goodbye, don't just say goodbye There's nothin' good about goodbye
Just say goodbye Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
Fa-falling, fa-falling out of, you're falling apart
