

You Make Me High

Sophie B. Hawkins

You make me cry
I don't even know why I open so wide to fit you Sometimes I wanna leave you cause I know you can't be true
I wanna believe you Sometimes I almost do
But you will never change
And I don't wanna say goodbye cause when I look in your eyes
You make me high

And I don't wanna be just a speck on your horizon
So when you land this time I hope you'll let me know Is this something that could grow Or am I still alone Cause when I'm with you I feel That I've finally found a home
There may be no windows or a door a ceiling or a floor
but you make me high
