

Reckless

Dirty Vegas

Reckless with love, she's reckless with love You don't even need to know her name

You seem to...

No matter how you start, it's all the same

(Reckless with love, she's reckless with love) You pray to God...

She only gets fulfilled from sabotage

Flashes a smile just before you fall

(Reckless with love, she's reckless with love) She'd lay you down when she's standing you up

And no matter what she does she always gets what she wants

So she gives you a little and then a little too much

And she's reckless with love, and she's reckless with love She's taking all you've got but it's never enough

And you're holding onto something that you know never comes

And she gives you a little and a little too much

And she's reckless with love, she's reckless with love

She'd take...

Wish you were away If you get too close

Reckless with love, she's reckless with love
