This Darkness

Sirenia

In my darkest dreams, I follow you into the night
In my darkest dreams, I walk with you beyond the lightThis darkness on my mind
Always tries to bring me further down
This darkness deep inside
Makes me lose myself time after timeIn my darkest hours, I see the world be built devours
In my darkest hours, I see a crumbling towerThis darkness on my mind
Always tries to bring me further down
This darkness deep inside
Makes me lose myself time after timeMakes me lose myself time after time
Makes me lose myself time after timeFeel the pain, it's growing strong
Our hearts been bleeding for so long
There's a light, there's a dream, there's a fire within Fading on into night eternallyOur crumbling walls, I can see them fall
Our bleeding hearts, forever lost in the darkThis darkness on my mind
Always tries to bring me further down
This darkness deep inside
Makes me lose myself time after timeThis darkness on my mind
Always tries to bring me further down
This darkness deep inside
Makes me lose myself time after time
