Total Confusion (feat. Antwon)

Pictureplane

i think i want to be your drug you take a part of me every time you're leaving me and we're the same when we bleed but i'm addicted to your blood and its making me weak i think i want to be your drugyou're just victims of distraction the postmodern condition turning gold into shit that's just, abstract illusion total confusion drums like guns lead me in (?)its confusing me, keep abusing mei swore i couldn't feel itThe ice around my heart It freezes away fear You my perfect drug, whenever you come near Inside my soul, molly and summer spears i become a donor i swore i couldn't feel it the sum of the past, now alone in the dark, now alone in my heart started a mission to dart it (?) won't survive the night, not a dearly departed but we on some other shit we finish what we started i had came from the bottom, to the blue honda, pop the transformer now i'm rolling off a ganna we love how a nigga free, smoking all the drugs in the best see why six freaks on me (?)keep confusing me its confusing me
keep abusing me
its confusing me
keep abusing mekeep confusing me
