Adam's Fall

11th Hour

As I journeyed through his precious word
I find where Adam fell and lost our souls
As I turned another page, I find his blood shed
For human race, and then I saw my own sin
My condemnation, without him
Then I stood at Calvary's place, and that's where I found
Amazing GraceI saw you nailed, to a tree
Gave your life freely, for unworthy me
Heaven's angels you did not call, rescued my soul
From Adam's fallAnd now I have eternal life,
For his blood has been applied,
He placed it on, the Mercy seat
And now I stand in Him completeI saw you nailed, to a tree,
Gave your life freely, for unworthy me
Heaven's angels you did not call, rescued my soul
From Adam's fall
