

Welcome Home

Rehab

Welcome home
Where the faucets drip at night
Welcome home
Where the screen door don't hang right
Welcome home
The only place you'll ever fight
Because you love
Over and over again
Chicken on the grill; hole in the wall where I got ill
Comin home late smellin like a still;
Mom waited up to get in my grill
It's where my dad caught me becomin a man
Came with the bail money; did the best he can
A cross on the wall; a bible on the table
Under a full moon, drinkin a black label
Standin on a screened-in porch that leaned
Chiefin the good leaf; feelin the breeze
Momma said everyday hit your knees
And give thanks that you're alive
Oh, take it to the house
take it to the house; take it to the take it to the take it to the house
Welcome home
Where the faucets drip at night
Welcome home
Where the screen door don't hang right
Welcome home
The only place you'll ever fight
Because you love
Over and over again
Think about the years
Troubles of the world don't matter here
Talk about Chevrolets over a beer
And don't gotta worry about what I hear

Because ya know its all said in love
Sometimes push here comes to shove
And we forgive, but we don't forget

And its okay to be full of it
Cuz we all know who we messin with Car in the yard over run by weeds
I remember when I used to climb that tree
When I was young and dumb
Oh

Oh, take it to the house
Take it to the house; take it to the
Take it to the; take it to the house

Welcome home

Where the faucets drip at night

Welcome home

Where the screen door don't hang right

Welcome home

The only place you'll ever fight

Because you love

Over and over again

What a beautiful day

Lookin back and thinkin bout the people that I'm missin

You can hear 'em in the breeze and the trees if ya listen

Some are in the ground and some are in prison

Now I remember momma hangin clothes on the line

Way back before I opened my mind

And got hip to the guilt, hard times, and fear

And I'm just damn glad to be here

Welcome home

Where the faucets drip at night

Welcome home

Where the screen door don't hang right

Welcome home

The only place you'll ever fight

Because you love

Over and over again
