Goodbye

Maysa

No matter how hard I pray
I knew that you would leave me someday
And this is really hard to say but GoodbyeYou know I had a love so real
No, I wont forget the way you made me feel
But I aint gonna stand in your way
GoodbyeIll hold back my tears until youre gone
Ill try to be strong
Though Im gonna miss your touch
I know I gotcha if you wereNo, I wont forget, wont regret these loveI know you gotta do whats right
You dont need me to put up a fight
Just hold me til the morning light
Then Ill say goodbyeI did everything I could do
I gave my heart and soul to you
One day youll realize the sacrifice I made for you
When I say goodbye
