Before My Eyes

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Right before my eyesI've been betrayed, I've worked so hard
And everything I fucking gave
You haven't changed
A rat, a traitor, digging yourself a graveRight before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyesI'm in a rage
Can't control my feelings, I've been upstaged
Life in a cage
No longer human burning from all the hateAgainst the grain
I live this life every single fucking day
Nothing to save
Something that was will never be that way againRight before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyesGoRight before my eyesI've been betrayed, I've worked so hard
And everything I fucking gave
You haven't changed
A rat, a traitor, digging yourself a graveRight before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyes
