

Before My Eyes

Agnostic Front

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Right before my eyes I've been betrayed, I've worked so hard
And everything I fucking gave
You haven't changed
A rat, a traitor, digging yourself a grave Right before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyes I'm in a rage
Can't control my feelings, I've been upstaged
Life in a cage
No longer human burning from all the hate Against the grain
I live this life every single fucking day
Nothing to save
Something that was will never be that way again Right before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyes Go Right before my eyes I've been betrayed, I've worked so hard
And everything I fucking gave
You haven't changed
A rat, a traitor, digging yourself a grave Right before my eyes I see all your shame
Right before my eyes I feel all your pain
Right before my eyes you have turned your back
Right before my eyes
