Lack There Of

Biohazard

Lack of trust, all alone
Lookin' down at the bottom of a hole
I've no trust, bare my soulAre we alone? Or do we have friends
Or are we just searchin' for a means to an end
What up, peace out, my boys and all that
But as soon as we leave they talk behind our backs
Low self image of the way things are Either way we lose and we can never go far
'Cause always we'll wonder as to just what's the deal
It just depends on what you feel is realPerception is everything inside our brains
With much bigger problems leave no time for games
Of people acting down but it's just a facade
Can't say it to my face, isn't that odd
Just exactly what does trust mean
Is it about being down with the scene?
Or is it about following your own true heart?
And being true to your friends to the end from the startLack of trust, all alone
Lookin' down at the bottom of a hole
I've no trust, bare my soulTrust no oneI trust no one
I trust no one
I trust no oneJust what is wealth it's just how you view it
It's not having to wonder whether or not you might lose it
It can't be about material gain
If you're drowning alone neck deep in pain
To trust and lay your soul on the line
May not be the nature of most humankind
Lookin' over your shoulder is no way to go out
Stick with true friends and do without the doubtLack of trust, all alone
Lookin' down at the bottom of a hole
I've no trust, bare my soulI trust no one
I trust no one
I trust no one
