

Flaws

Kierra Sheard

Sometimes I talk a little too much
Don't listen enough
Sometimes its way too easy for me to be myself
But sometimes I hate the way I look when I look in the mirror
One look from you I know My flaws
You love you love my flaws
Think they make me beautiful
You don't see them as flaws at all
Thats why
That's why, that's why I love you
Cause you are you are the one who
The one who loves my flaws Sometimes I get a little unsure
A lot insecure
Sometimes I know I might say some words
That might cause some hurt
Sometimes I get in my own way
I'm way too much to put up with
But you put up with it all My flaws
You love you love my flaws
Think they make me beautiful
You don't see them as flaws at all
Thats why
Thats why thats why I love you
Cause you are you are the one who
The one who loves my flaws You think I'm everything when I think I'm nothing
When I hate myself you still love me
Love me and My flaws
You love you love my flaws
Think they make me beautiful
You don't see them as flaws at all (Oh God)
My flaws
You love you love my flaws
Think they make me beautiful
You don't see them as flaws at all
Thats why
Thats why thats why I love you
Cause you are you are the one who
The one who loves my flaws My flaws
You love you love my flaws
