Say a Little Prayer

Flesh-n-Bone

Down, gotta lay me down, down, down to sleep
(Down, gotta lay me down)
I pray to the Lord that
A holy ghost bless my soul to keep
(Pray to the Lord, my soul)And if I should die before I wake
Wake up, wake up, hope that He saved a place in heaven
So I pray every day for my soul He take upGettin' my hustle in every day, each day
When I would get on my knees and pray
Every day faced with all kinda playa hatin'
Why they wanna make my sanity tighten
Pray, hey, hey, hey, and I gotBeautiful family, a lovely wife, and my little pretty daughter
And I got two sons, handsome just like me, so I count blessing
After each blessing, every last blessing I learned a lesson
I didnt realize my blessings keep me from stressin'
Jesus came, and died on the cross to save us from our sins, our sinsThe kingdom of heaven's at hand, how much to repent to get in?
Again and again, Im sendin' my praises up above and I dont know
When Im entertainin' angels, so I gotta show more love
Gotta honor Mother and Father with all my heart
My little brothers Steven and Stewart
We dont let demons break us apart, yeahYou know thats a no-no for sure, I can put it on my soul
I can even put it [unverified] and run the little seconds down the road
Im ready to go, steady rollin', leavin' these strangers
If the whole world would end tomorrow, tomorrow just might be the end
So wait for the Lord, followDown, gotta lay me down, down, down to sleep
(Down, gotta lay me down)
I pray to the Lord that a holy ghost bless my soul to keep (Pray to the Lord, my soul)And if I should die, before I wake
Wake up, wake up, hope that He saved a place in heaven
So I pray every day for my soul, He take up
(Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah)
(Is the highest praise forever, amen)Must you prepare for the judgment, baby
Now tell me what youve been up to lately
Situations steady come on the daily, no, it dont really surprise me
It dont amaze me, but it do drive me crazy
Demons, they keep tryin' to fade me and its so evilAll they wanna do is aggravate me, trip, and I flip
Dont make me see, even when Im not lookin' for trouble
Trouble, it seem to come, find, thats how it is
When you live in the limelight, but I dont worryPut it all behind me gotta get down, way down, stay down

Satan up, under my foot, gotta rebuke
And recite the scriptures from the Holy Book, thats when it straight shookLook at the prophecy comin' down in history, still it aint no mystery
Cant let it repeat, goods gonna demolish evil
What a miraculous, wonderful victory, oh, yeah
Armageddon waitin' for the [unverified] when the lid, pop
When it goes down, dont be sleepin' 'cause itll creep on usSend a thief in the night watch out, wake up, stay woke
And gather more faith in Jesus, lead us get ready to
The will of God, so that He can keep us from the wrath
Of fiery brimstones stay strong and hold onto your faith
And it wont greet you, yet meet you, deceit you, were leadin'
And walkin' through heavens gatesDown, gotta lay me down, down, down to sleep
(Down, gotta lay me down)
I pray to the Lord that a holy ghost bless my soul to keep (Pray to the Lord, my soul)And if I should die, before I wake
Wake up, wake up, hope that He saved a place in heaven
So I pray every day for my soul, He take up
(Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah)
(Is the highest praise forever, amen)
Our father, which art in Heaven, hollow would be Thy holy nameDown, gotta lay me down, down, down to sleep
(Down, gotta lay me down)
I pray to the Lord that a holy ghost bless my soul to keep (Pray to the Lord, my soul)And if I should die, before I wake
Wake up, wake up, hope that He saved a place in heaven
So I pray every day for my soul, He take up
(Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah)
(Is the highest praise forever, amen)Oh, Lord, oh, Lord, how majestic is Thy name in all the earth
