

Shin Ichi

Bo Ningen

It still remains as usual in my mind.
Where is my mind swept away?
I don't even know who you are.
It still remains there, the unknown words, who you are,
The shape of the sound going deep inside of my mind. I see the word, the word I usually see.
It vanished suddenly, I was watching my memory fading away.
What is it? The word I don't know.
Even the word next to myself passes over me. Who are you, someone's words coming in the edge of my mind?
Sa Sa Sa Sa Sa
I flew down and came inside then I noticed.
