

The Great Deceit

Killswitch Engage

Resound the outcry, raise the signal of distress. We are compromised
They have silenced our dissent. A dull complacency covers humanity
This systematic hate of deceit
How many more will die before we realize the truth has been disguised?
Violence increased, no justice and no peace. In the great deceit
The discontent silenced or put to death
In the great deceit. It's mental slavery
Our segregation is further fed by ignorance
This disconnection through color of the flesh
Blood of generations, saturate our roots. But history conceals the truth
Violence increased, no justice and no peace. In the great deceit
The discontent silenced or put to death
In the great deceit
This is a great deceit
How can we breathe? The silence is killing me
How can we breathe? Who is the enemy
How can we breathe? Suffocate humanity
How can we breathe? No justice. No peace
No justice and no peace, in the great deceit
The discontent, silence or put to death
In the great deceit. It's mental slavery
