

Waiting for Her

Pea Shooter

Waiting for her

That's all I ever do, waiting for her

So why didn't I take the measures justifiedOur love has always been the same

She comes, then goes away again, oh yeahYeah, the sweet little love is goneShe used to say

We never had the breaks we should've had

Coming our way

So why didn't I take the time and put it rightOur love has always been the same

She leaves me standing out in the rain, oh yeahSend her my love

She's all I'm thinking of, oh yeahI'm telling you

We never had the breaks we should've had

Comin' our wayAnd when she's sleeping by my side

Eyes closed, all knowledge trapped inside, oh yeah

So why didn't I take the measures justifiedSend her my love

She's all I'm thinking of, oh yeahI'm telling you, yeah

Yeah, the sweet little love is gone

Telling youThe sweet little love is gone
