

Thin Man

Suzanne Vega

He is not my friend but he is with me
Like a shadow is with a foot that falls
His hand is on my back when I step from the sidewalk
Or when I'm walking down these darkened hallsHe's the thin man
With a date for me
To arrive at some point
I don't know when it will be, ohI can feel his eyes when I don't expect him
In the back seat of the taxi down Vestry Street
His arm is around my waist and he pulls me to him
And he whispers things into my ear that sound so sweetHe's the thin man
With a date for me
To arrive at some point
I don't know when it will be, ohHe is not my friend but he is with me
And he promises a peace I never knew
But I cannot give in, no I must refuse him
Could I really be the one to resist that kiss so true?He's the thin man
With a date for me
To arrive at some point
I don't know when it will be, oh
