

In My Ears

A Telemetry

I know it's gone away
only left with a memory
distant voices

an echo fades in time
once clear now a whisper
through the wind

the path will guide the flight

a sound with no tone
the pain has only grown to find it so unfair

many words with no substance isolate

opinions all so weak
to gain strength for a let down i'm aware

the game is set to fail

a sound with no tone

so relentlessly
to pull you through the turns are few

with guidance clear
it can be gained
release the strain

a sound with no tone
